

Your Flexible Partner for Business Systems

With many years' experience in ERP, a growing team and a flexible approach, G7 has what it takes to help make your business work. We pride ourselves on the range and quality of our services, and our willingness to respond to the individual needs of our clients.

Full implementation

G7's full implementation includes project management, application consultancy for design, build, testing and 'go-live', as well as technical consultancy (including ARC and Crystal reporting).

Unique blended upgrade approach

G7's unique blended approach of on-site consultancy and access to the G7 Application Managed Service, provides cost and time effective upgrades for our clients. Upgrades inevitably throw up challenges, and G7 is perfectly placed to deal with these. Many of our consultants have come from the Unit4 team, and so have considerable expertise in current and legacy versions of Unit4 Business World.

Re-implementations

G7 are perfectly placed to help you review your current use of the U4BW system and advise on what changes could be incorporated to ensure you gain the most of the system you already have.

Flexible and responsive Application Managed Service

Application Managed Service

Relieving the pressure on your in-house support team, our Application Managed Service allows you to ask us about any issue, large or small, whether it be training, issue resolution, housekeeping or small development projects - even support for AG16s. Allowing you to get the most out of your system.

Support training courses

G7 has developed 3 courses based on how to support your U4BW system; System Administration, Workflow Introduction and Overview of Unit 4 Business World.

G7 can tailor a package of consultancy and support that is right for you.

"G7 have an approach which is refreshing in the ERP world and especially pleasing with any Agresso implementation. They have a great team who are skilled, experienced and customer focused."

"These guys are not 9 to 5 consultants, they bent over backwards to support all aspects of the deployment and bedding in of the system, building strong relationships across the departments and with the work leads, ensuring that the key stakeholders understood the system process and comfortable with how to get the best from the system. I will not hesitate in recommending G7 as one of the best providers of Agresso consultancy."
